A BRIEF HISTORY OF TROOP 39

In the fall of 1911, a small group of young men and their leaders hiked from an area near UNC's Campus Y to what is now Battle Park near the Forest Theatre, beginning what is a long and proud history for Troop 39.

Since that humble beginning in 1911, generations of boys have grown into fine young men through their experiences with Troop 39 -- hiking, camping, serving their community, and so much more.

As adults, Troop 39 alumni are leaders in all capacities from business and government, to their churches, schools and towns. Troop 39 is proud to celebrate 100 years of assisting so many young men in becoming knowledgeable, responsible citizens in their community, nation and the world.

REGISTRATION & WEBSITE

If you haven't already, please go to www.troop39nc.org to join the Troop 39 Alumni registry and update your contact information, or call Julie Richardson at: 919-673-5710.

The Troop website has all the details of the weekend's activities and is an excellent source of information about our scouts' current activities and accomplishments. You will also find many fantastic photos! Alumni will be especially interested to see video clips of Scoutmaster Emeritus, Jim Mackorell, sharing stories at our Centennial kick-off event in October 2011 at The Forest Theatre.

If you're interested, there is a Facebook page for Chapel Hill Boy Scout Troop 39's Alumni. We welcome you to join and reconnect with old friends. Just go to this Facebook page and request to be a friend: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/troop39alumni/>
